What's Happening Week 1?

Bruin Leaders Project (BLP)
Are you interested in developing your leadership skills and experiencing what life is like within SOLE (Student Organizations, Leadership, and Engagement)? By joining the Bruin Leaders Project (BLP) students will get the chance to explore various student affairs and advising career pathways while gaining the necessary skills to succeed in the workplace. At the end of the program, students will also get the opportunity to work with their cohort on a project within SOLE to create a program that pertains to both their interests and the resources available on campus. For more information and to apply, complete their Google form. The deadline to apply is Monday, March 28th by 11:59pm. Applicants will be notified of their acceptance by the following week.

195CE Internship Course
Are you interested in earning academic credit for an internship in Spring 2022? Consider enrolling in a 195CE internship course! In the course you'll receive 1:1 mentorship from a graduate student instructor, complete weekly reading and writing reflections, and produce a final paper that asks an applied research question connecting academic material with your internship experience. Visit the Center for Community Engagement website for eligibility details and enrollment instructions, and enroll in a 195CE course by Wednesday, April 6, 2022 (Week 2). For more information, email 195CEinfo@college.ucla.edu.

Information and Media Literacy Minor
Interested in media, internet, and the ways in which people consume content? Consider applying for the Information and Media Literacy Minor! The UCLA School of Education and Information Studies is hosting an information session, Thursday, March 31st from 12-1 pm! The meeting ID is 663 252 4981. For questions or to learn more about the minor program, visit their website or send a message via MyUCLA Message Center department (Information Studies). Applications will be available Week 1 Spring quarter and are due Week 2 Friday. Check out @edmajorucla on IG to receive updates for the latest news regarding the minor.
