What's Happening Week 8?

Academic Supports Program (ASP) Public Speaking Workshop
Want to practice public speaking and facilitation with friends? The Academic Supports Program will be hosting a public speaking/facilitation workshop Tuesday, February 22nd at 5PM in the Rieber 4N Lounge! Feel free to bring a friend and present on ANY topic you'd like. Also come learn tips and tricks to practice when presenting in person and sharpen your facilitation skills!

Commuter Buddy Program
Calling all student commuters! The Commuter Support & Programs office at UCLA has launched the Commuter Buddy Program, a buddy system that pairs commuter students to increase carpooling and peer-to-peer mentoring opportunities. Students in the program would get an inside scoop on Commuter Buddy events and get a chance to form friendships with other commuters. If you are a student commuter, and interested to be paired with a buddy, apply for the program here!

Applications are due on Friday, February 25th, at 11:59 PM PST. For questions and concerns, contact commuters@saonet.ucla.edu or @bruin_commuters on Instagram.

Students for Economic Justice Internship
The Students for Economic Justice (SEJ) Summer Internship is a full time, $20/hr, 6-week program (June 20 - July 29, 2022) that empowers the next generation of students interested in social justice through a series of leadership and professional development opportunities. SEJ provides undergraduate college students with hands-on organizing experience in a current San Diego campaign for economic justice. Interns receive training from key labor and community leaders throughout San Diego to build an intersectional approach to economic and social justice.

Application is due Friday, February 25th, 11:59pm. To find out more visit their website!

For questions or concerns please contact Sarah Farouq at sfarouq@cpisandiego.org.

CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors and Student Staff, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

UCLA Campus Assault Resources and Education (CARE)
UCLA Campus Assault Resources and Education (CARE) is an organization that is committed to the eradication of sexual and gender-based violence through creating and sustaining a safe, healthy, equitable community for all people. CARE has three distinct, but complementary services: Education, Advocacy, and Healing. Combined, these three components allow CARE to address primary, secondary, and tertiary levels of prevention providing a comprehensive approach in service of their mission. Their goal is building compassion, knowledge, and resilience to encourage culture change toward a safer, healthier, equitable community. The CARE program is currently providing both in-person and online services. To learn more about CARE, visit their website, or get in contact via email care@careprogram.ucla.edu or phone (310) 206-2465. You can also follow CARE on Facebook and Instagram @uclacareprogram to keep up with their healing opportunities, activities, and resources.
