The Connection
Fall 2021 | Week 7
For Undergraduates in the UCLA College of Letters and Science

What's Happening Week 7?

CAC Winter Enrollment Workshop
Do you need help selecting courses for Winter quarter? Do you have questions about the enrollment process? This 60-minute Zoom workshop is designed to help students in the College of Letters and Sciences navigate through enrollment. We will review where to find options for your Winter quarter GE and major courses. College Academic Mentors are also available to assist students individually to plan for their classes after the presentation. To preview the presentation and review enrollment resources, see this guide and register for the workshop on MyUCLA (Academics > Workshops). The workshops will be offered on November 8th and 9th from 4-5pm, and on November 10th (Transfer Enrollment Workshop) and 15th from 3:30-4:30pm.

National First-Gen Day Activities
Attention first-gen students! National First-Gen Day is Monday, November 8th, and First To Go is celebrating all day long! Celebrate in person and get a FREE Diddy Riese cookie on November 8th from 10am-12pm at Campbell Hall & The Graduate Student Resource Center OR from 7pm-9pm at De Neve Plaza on The Hill. To show your pride virtually, attend the National First-Gen Day Panel hosted by NASPA on November 8th at 12pm PST, RSVP here or attend Trivia and Chill hosted by the First-Gen Graduate Student Council on November 10th at 5pm, RSVP here. Follow @ucla_firstgen on Instagram or subscribe to their newsletter to learn more ways to show off your first-gen pride.

Eatwell 2021 Food Day @ UCLA Farmers’ Market
Join the Eatwell Pod at the UCLA Farmers' Market at Bruin Plaza for their annual Food Day celebration in collaboration with UCLA Teaching Kitchen. In celebration of Food Day, EatWell Pod will address both the significance of these ingredients to our UCLA community, as well as highlighting the ingredients’ connection to the land we inhabit and the indigenous traditions they come to us from. The UCLA Teaching Kitchen will do hourly live cooking demonstrations of a seasonal dish at the market. Community partners HCI garden and Zero Waste at UCLA will have presentations about the carbon footprint of different foods. The event will take place outdoors on Wednesday November 10, from 2pm- 6pm. If you would like to find out more or need accommodations in order to join for the cooking demonstrations, please email eatwell@ucla.edu.

CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors and Student Staff, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The UCLA LGBTQ Campus Resource Center (CRC) provides a range of education and advocacy services fostering unity, wellness, and an open, safe, and inclusive environment for UCLA's LGBTQ community. The LGBTQ CRC affirms folks of all sexual and gender identities, supports intersectional identity development, and serves the entire UCLA community – undergraduate students, graduate students, faculty, staff, and alumni. The LGBTQ CRC hosts weekly community spaces, social and professional events, and allyship trainings for campus organizations. Stop by the Center, located in the Student Activities Center, to hang out or study. Access their programs and services on their website at lgbtq.ucla.edu, and sign up for their weekly newsletter for updates about events and resources.
