Pre-med 101: A Guide to Being Pre-med at UCLA Workshop
Interested in medicine, but do not know where to start? Attend a 2-hour workshop hosted by College Academic Counseling Peer Counselors to learn about the medical school admissions criteria, required prerequisite coursework, MCAT, pre-health resources on campus, and more. The workshop is designed to help current undergraduate students navigate the path of being a pre-med at UCLA! Whether you're looking to get a head start or just wanting to know the steps to pursue a career in medicine, this workshop is for you! College Academic Counseling will host these workshops on Tuesday, February 1st, at 4:30-6:30 pm, and Monday, February 7th, at 4:00-6:00 pm. Please register for the workshops through the links above. Capacity is limited to 90 students, and the workshop will not be recorded.

We Gon' Be Alright: Developing the Next Generation of Black Organizers
We Gon' Be Alright: Developing the Next Generation of Black Organizers will be a space to explore the role of organizers in facilitating movement through their lived human experience to educate, the authentic role of storytelling to mobilize action, and the Black collective understanding of power dynamics and trust-filled relationships utilized to usher in change. Spring 2022 LBR STD/AF AMER M115 course is in partnership with UCLA CARE at Work. Enrollment in this class will be through the instructor's consent. To learn more about the course, CARE at Work will be hosting a virtual open house on Thursday, February 10th, 6:00 pm. To register, complete this form.

CONDUITS

Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors and Student Staff, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

Community Programs Office

Community Programs Office (CPO) is UCLA's cross-cultural center. Their mission is to build and nurture an inclusive and diverse community of scholars and leaders who are committed to giving back to historically marginalized communities. CPO empowers students to develop and execute student-run outreach, service projects, and retention programs. CPO's Food Closet provides food to students experiencing food insecurity. CPO promotes education, health, social justice, and student risk management. Find CPO in the Student Activities Center and learn more about their extensive services at https://cpo.ucla.edu/.
