What's Happening Week 6?

Public Affairs Major Information Sessions
The world needs agents of social change whose passion to improve people's lives is matched by the knowledge and skills to deliver results. The B.A. in Public Affairs will help cultivate this next generation of civic-minded leaders! Join the Luskin School of Public Affairs Undergraduate Program at one of our Public Affairs Major information sessions to learn about the B.A. in Public Affairs, major requirements, application process, and how Luskin supports your academic goals! The information session is open to first- and second-year students who are interested in the major. The information sessions will be held in-person on Tuesday, November 1, 2022, from 5-6pm and via Zoom on Wednesday, November 16, 2022, from 2-3pm. Register here to attend the Public Affairs Major Information Session. Learn more about the Public Affairs Major at luskin.ucla.edu/undergrad.

Bruin Next Steps
As Winter Quarter enrollment is approaching, it may be helpful to start preparing for next quarter by attending Bruin Next Steps! From November 1-3, 9:00 am - 8:00 pm, New Student Advisors (NSAs) will be available during this virtual drop-in advising event to offer support and answer any questions with regards to enrolling in courses. NSAs will also be able to provide information on majors/minors, as well as how to prepare for graduate and professional school programs (e.g. medical, law, etc). Make sure to reserve a spot via MyUCLA beforehand and come prepared with questions! Follow @uclanewstudents on Instagram to receive more information and stay updated.

URC Research Opportunities
Interested in undergraduate research and looking for scholarship opportunities? Check out the Undergraduate Research Fellows Program (UREP) and the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship (MMUF)! URFP participants conduct research or design a creative project during Winter and Spring quarters under the mentorship of a distinguished UCLA faculty mentor and receive a $3,000 scholarship. MMUF participants conduct a research project during their junior and senior year and receive up to $15,000 in scholarships and funding. Applications are open, and URFP and MMUF are due by November 15th by 11:59 pm. Interested applicants can check out the URC-HASS newsletter to stay up to date with research opportunities and relevant workshops.

LGBTQ Campus Resource Center
If you are a member of the LGBTQ+ community, then the LGBTQ Campus Resource Center is a great place for you! The resource center hosts a myriad of events and services all centered around community-building, resources, counseling, outreach, training, consultation and advocacy for members of all gender, romantic, and sexual orientations in the UCLA community. The Resource Center offers assistance from Career development help, scholarships, financial wellness resources, to sexual well-being and HIV/AIDS resources, and simply a safe space on campus as well. The Resource Center also hosts events and weekly programs. Visit their website at https://lgbtq.ucla.edu/ to see a full list of events and services or in-person at the Student Activities Center B36!
