The Connection
Fall 2022 | Week 7
For Undergraduates in the UCLA College of Letters and Science

What's Happening Week 7?

Pre-Med 101 Workshop
Interested in medicine but do not know where to start? Attend a 2-hour introductory workshop hosted by College Academic Counseling Peer Counselors to learn about the medical school admissions criteria, required prerequisite coursework, MCAT, pre-health resources on campus, and more. Please register for the workshop to receive the Zoom information here. Capacity is limited to 130 students, and the workshop will not be recorded. It will take place on November 18 of Week 8 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm.

National First Gen Day Formal
Tuesday, November 8th, is National First-Generation Day! And to celebrate, The UCLA First To Go program will be putting on a First-Gen Formal open to all first generation students! Celebrate alongside other first-gen students with a night full of networking, food, music, games, and more! There will also be a career panel of first-gen alumni and special giveaways. The theme for the formal is Dress to Impress. The Formal will be on Tuesday November 8th in the Covel Grand Horizon room from 5pm to 7pm. You can find more information about the Formal and other events happening throughout the week at https://firsttogo.ucla.edu or in their instagram @ucla_firstgen. Don't forget to RSVP at tinyurl.com/NFGW202!

Sports are for Everybody
Join the Disability Studies Inclusion Labs on November 16, 2022, from 5-7:30 PM PST for an enlightening conversation with Professor Atushi Nakazawa (Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan) and Professor Karen Nakamura (UC Berkeley) on how sports and education reveal society's structures and values. The presentation will focus on Japanese society, and it's the history of school sports post- 1945. It will also focus on how changes in disability rights in Japan have impacted access to sports for youth with disabilities and views on the future from recent changes. The contestation will be moderated by Dr. Fred Ariel Hernandez and will feature an in-person reception with light refreshments with an immediate Q & A to follow. To register for in-person attendance, click here. To register for the zoom webinar, please click here. Event will be held in the UCLA Hall of Fame Press Room.

UPCOMING DATES AND DEADLINES

Monday, November 7th (Week 7)
- Priority pass enrollment appointments begin

Thursday, November 10th (Week 7)
- First-pass enrollment appointments begin

Friday, November 11th (Week 7)
- Veterans Day Holiday (no school)
- Last Day to drop non-impacted classes with transcript notation through MyUCLA

Thursday, November 17th (Week 8)
- Second pass enrollment appointments begin

STAY CONNECTED!
Contact College Academic Counseling via
- MyUCLA Message Center
- REACH Virtual Drop-in Counseling
- Window at A-316 Murphy Hall
- CAC Peer Counselor In-Person Stations

Visit our CAAC Contact page for our REACH and Window hours, and CAC Peer Counselor page for In-Person Station location and hours

CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

CPO Food Closet
If you are going through some financial hardship and/or may be experiencing hunger, the Community Programs Office (CPO) Food Closet provides free food to UCLA students in need. The location is at the Student Activities Center, Level 1, East Wing, and hours of operation are usually Mondays-Fridays, 9 am - 4 pm. Food donations and monetary contributions are also greatly appreciated; please visit https://cpo.ucla.edu/cpo/foodcloset/ for more information or contact the Basic Needs Manager, Rohit Maharaj, at rmaharaj@cpo.ucla.edu.