What's Happening Week 9?

Luskin Public Policy Virtual Diversity Fair
The Luskin School of Public Affairs is hosting its annual Diversity Fair! Join us to meet the Chair of Admission, Dr. Kenya Covington, learn more about the curriculum and hear from current students in the program. You will also learn about graduate programs in the Luskin School of Public Affairs and how your education in Public Policy, Social Welfare, or Urban Planning can lead to a career in public service and social justice. The Fair will be taking place on Monday, November 28th 2002 via Zoom 5:30-8:00 pm PST. You can register here: https://tinyurl.com/ppdivfair. For any questions or concerns about this event, please contact Cristy Portlock at cristy@luskin.ucla.edu. We hope to see you there!

Public Health Major
The UCLA Fielding School of Public Health is pleased to announce the new B.A. and B.S. major in Public Health! They will be offering virtual information sessions in the coming months to cover degree and major requirements, as well as the application process. Although the one on Nov 17th has already passed, there is an upcoming one on Thursday, December 1, at 5 PM PST. Please register using the following link: https://tinyurl.com/publichealthdec1. Come get your questions answered and meet other people with similar interests!

Career Opportunities at the Labor Commissioner's Office and Department of Industrial Relations
Join UCLA's Department of Labor Studies and California State Labor Commissioner, Lilia Garcia-Brower, for an information session on career opportunities and pathways within the Labor Commissioner's Office and Department of Industrial Relations. The event will take place on December 1st from 11:30 AM to 12:45 PM PST in 279 Haines Hall. Lunch will also be provided for those who attend! This is a great opportunity for those interested in pursuing careers in government and politics. You can RSVP for the event here.
