

The Connection

Winter 2023 | Week 3

For Undergraduates in the UCLA College of Letters and Science

What's Happening Week 3?

Labor Summer Research Program: Works and Learners in Los Angeles County

Are you interested in applied research focused on social, economic, and political contexts of workers, learners, or students? Applications are open for UCLA's Labor Summer Research Program, which provides the opportunity to explore how working students who attend college in LA County navigate barriers and opportunities in fulfilling their academic, career, and life goals. Students will be trained on research design, surveys and interview fielding, data analysis, presenting research to audiences, and writing of findings. Apply here by March 31, 2023.

Just Do It: Inside the Resume

Join us to learn how to be the hero of your own story and share your experiences and skills on your resume/cover letter. Your resume/cover letter is your opportunity to shine and highlight who you are and what you value you bring to an employer. We hope you can join us for our first Winter Quarter Humanities Career Panel Series event, Just Do It: Inside the Resume on Tuesday, January 24th from 4-5pm PST—RSVP for Zoom Link: <https://tinyurl.com/hcpsresume>. Student Attendees who come to the event and fill out a short two question survey at the end are entered to win a Humanities swag bag! Follow us on Facebook and Instagram @uclahcps.

Minor in Entrepreneurship

The minor in entrepreneurship is currently accepting applications! The minor is a great opportunity for those interested in learning more about business practices and developing business ideas. The minor will also be hosting a series of informational sessions for all those interested in the minor! Join one of them, to learn more about the minor, make your application as competitive as possible, and ask any questions you may have. You can register for all info sessions or view recorded ones here! Any students who view the recorded info session can also submit their questions to the minor advisor, Janel Munguia, via the Message Center. All applications are due February 24th, 2023!
