This handout is designed to help you plan your last year at UCLA. It is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all the rules and regulations governing graduation requirements for the College of Letters & Science, nor is it intended to cover every Commencement detail. For more information visit www.college.ucla.edu/commencement or speak to a College advisor/counselor.

Eligibility:

You are eligible to participate in June Commencement events if: you completed all degree requirements and graduated in Fall 2022 or Winter 2023; or declared a degree candidacy term of Spring 2023 or Summer 2023.

Graduation Checklist

Declare/Confirm Degree Candidacy Term

In order to graduate, you must declare your degree candidacy term on MyUCLA. This information is located on the top left of your Degree Audit. If you do not have a degree expected term listed, or it is inaccurate, you may correct it through MyUCLA. Additional information about how to declare/confirm your degree candidacy term can be found on the Registrar's website.

Confirm Spelling of Name for your Diploma and Program

Confirm the spelling of your name beginning week 4 of your degree expected term on MyUCLA. This feature allows you to edit your name and to add special accents and punctuation.

- Your current UCLA legal name will appear on your diploma in upper case. Your UCLA preferred name will be used for all Commencement related materials. If your legal name has changed or is misspelled, file an online name change form.
- If you have questions about name verification for the College Commencement Program, please send a message using the MyUCLA Message Center.

Privacy Restrictions → Check your MyUCLA Privacy Status

If you selected DO NOT RELEASE for the All Public Information Privacy Option, your name will not appear in the program and may restrict UCLA from providing degree confirmation to future employers.

- In order for your name to appear in the Commencement Program, you must select RELEASE the All Public Information Privacy Option.
- If you have a FERPA Restriction (your status will be set to "Selected") and would like your information to appear in the Commencement Program, please see the Registrar's Office about removing the restriction. If your FERPA Restriction is set to "Not Selected," you do not need to contact the Registrar's Office.

Please note that the College Commencement Program is created and made available online after all degrees for the Class of 2023, including Summer degrees, have been conferred and posted. Additional information is available on the College Commencement website (<https://college.ucla.edu/commencement>).

Consult with your Major and Minor Department Advisor/Counselor

Visit your department advisor/counselor and review your major requirements. If you have a minor, visit your department advisor/counselor and review your minor requirements. Confirm that your coursework (completed and in progress) will satisfy your remaining major requirements.

Consult with a College Advisor/Counselor (AAP, Athletics, CAC, or Honors)

Review any outstanding requirements for the College of Letters & Science and the University by checking your Degree Audit Report through MyUCLA. IMPORTANT NOTE: If you intend to complete any coursework outside of UCLA in order to complete your degree, you must consult with your College advisor/counselor to discuss your proposed coursework.

Latin Honors Status

Students who have 90 graded UC units (excludes courses taken P/NP) and meet the GPA criteria may be eligible for Latin Honors. If you are a transfer student and meet the GPA criteria but have fewer than 90 graded UC units, see your College advisor. The list of required GPA criteria appears towards the end of your DARS/DPR. The official Latin Honors designation made to your diploma and reported in the program is based on your final grades at the time of degree completion. If you are a Fall 2023 or later degree candidate, please check for revised Latin Honors GPA requirements after Summer 2023 as these are updated annually.

Check Grades on MyUCLA

Contact your instructors if you have questions about your final grades.

Review your Final Record

Make sure that your majors, minors, specializations, revisions in enrollment, grade changes, removal of incompletes, and any transactions are posted accurately. Approximately 5-6 weeks after your degree expected term, your degree is awarded and posted to your transcript. At that point your UCLA record is sealed, and no further changes are possible.

Request Early Certificate of Completion (optional)

If you need earlier evidence of your degree, once grades are available but before the degree is posted to your transcript, request an Early Certificate of Completion at <https://registrar.ucla.edu> > Forms > Graduation and Diploma > Early Certificate of Completion Request. There is no fee for an early certificate of completion.

Official Academic Transcripts

Official academic transcripts may be ordered through MyUCLA once the degree is awarded and posted to the transcript. Allow 6-8 weeks after your final term. There is no fee for ordering transcripts. Access to order transcripts on MyUCLA is indefinite.

Diploma

Use the Diploma Request link on MyUCLA beginning the fourth week of your degree expected term to arrange for the mailing of your diploma (no fee). Diplomas are available approximately 3 months after the last day of the term. Once available, diplomas not mailed will be held for in-person pick-up at 1113 Murphy Hall. IMPORTANT NOTES: (1) Check MyUCLA and resolve any holds that may be on your record to avoid delays; (2) You will get an email when your diploma is ready; (3) Update contact information on MyUCLA.

MyUCLA Access & Bruin Online (BOL)

All former students will continue to have access to MyUCLA. All UCLA graduates who have completed a degree from UCLA will also continue to have access to their UCLA Google Apps (@ucla.edu/@g.ucla.edu) account. If you have any questions regarding your Google Apps account or access to other BOL services, please contact the IT Support Center: <https://www.it.ucla.edu/it-support-center/contact-us>
