What’s Happening Week 2?

UCLA Study Abroad’s Global Learning Opportunities Week (GLOW)
If you’re interested in studying abroad and want to learn more about UCLA’s programs and opportunities, be sure to check out Global Learning Opportunities Week (GLOW)! GLOW is the annual all-things study abroad event hosted by UCLA’s very own International Education Office. Attend one of the many webinars to learn about the programs offered, how to navigate study abroad costs, and selecting a program based on major or satisfying GE requirements. Be sure to join them in-person at a pop-up event in Bruin Plaza on Wednesday, October 11th, to speak with staff and study abroad returning students to learn about their insight and experiences! The full programming schedule is available at the GLOW website.

2023 Labor Studies Open House
If you’re currently a student and interested in the Labor Studies major or minor, make sure to check out the in-person Labor Studies Open House on Tuesday, October 17th, from 11 AM to 12:30 PM in the Bruin Reception Room located on the Second Floor of Ackerman. While there, you’ll have the opportunity to learn more about the major and minor, and meet faculty, staff, and fellow students. Make sure to reserve your spot by October 10th! For more information and to RSVP, visit the Labor Studies Departmental website.

Entrepreneurship Minor Application Information Sessions
Interested in starting your own business? Apply to UCLA’s entrepreneurship minor and embark on a journey of innovation and success. The fall quarter application deadline is Friday, November 17, 2023. Prospective applicants may register for live Zoom info sessions by visiting the Entrepreneurship minor website. Interested applications who are unable to attend a live session may view the recorded session available on the website. If you have any questions or comments, please contact the minor student advisor, Janel Munguia, via the UCLA Message Center. Prospective applicants are also encouraged to explore the Minor in Entrepreneurship website.

CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

UCLA Career Center
If you’re feeling a bit overwhelmed with the various possibilities and career options, UCLA’s Career Center is a great place to start! There are various advisors equipped with experience and vast knowledge to help advise or guide you towards the right resources to provide more clarity. In addition to 1:1 counseling appointments, you may also visit their website at https://career.ucla.edu/ to explore various information sessions, general tips or resources on how to set up a professional profile (e.g. LinkedIn, creating a resume), and discover various career pathways. If you have general questions, you may email questions@career.ucla.edu or visit their location on the 2nd & 3rd floor of the Strathmore Building.
