What's Happening Week 6?

Labor Studies Student Union Coffee Chat
Are you interested in learning more about UCLA's Labor Studies program or getting involved with the program's student union? Join a coffee chat on Tuesday, November 7th from 2-3 pm with leaders from the Labor Studies Student Union (LSSU). This will be a space to not only learn more about the LSSU, what it stands for, why it was created, and what the future of this union is, but also a space to give feedback on the Labor Studies program and what you’d like to see from LSSU! RSVP here.

UCLA Quarter in Washington
UCLA Quarter in Washington provides you an incredible opportunity to intern in Washington, DC while remaining a full-time UCLA student. Imagine gaining hands-on experience, earning up to 16 upper division UCLA units, and making lifelong career connections on a national level. It's the ultimate Bruin adventure! You'll take three required courses (12 units total) that will turbocharge your academic journey: UCDC Seminar M194DC, any UCLA departmental 195CE internship course (taken for a letter grade), and a UCLA Political Science/History/Sociology/CESC/Public Affairs M195DC. All majors are welcome! A minimum 3.0 UCLA GPA and junior standing is required for eligibility. Ready to kickstart your DC adventure? Head over to this link for more information and to view the instructions to apply. The Spring 24 quarter application deadline is November 29, 2023.

Navigating Enrollment Workshop for Transfers
Are you a transfer student and looking for assistance with Winter enrollment? On Wednesday, November 8th from 12-1pm, CAAC College Advisors are hosting a virtual transfer enrollment workshop. This hour-long workshop will provide transfer students with tips and tricks for navigating the enrollment process. CAAC hopes all students will leave feeling more confident about the enrollment and their class selection for winter quarter. Registration is limited; make sure to register today!
