What's Happening Week 2?

2024 Virtual Tax Education Workshops
UCLA Financial Wellness is teaming up with the Volunteer Income Tax Association, The Dashew Center, The Graduate Student Resource Center, and WESCOM Credit Union to offer Virtual Tax Education Workshop sessions for undergraduate students. These workshops are a great opportunity to learn about the tax filing process, review various tax forms, and understand where and how to find help during the filing process. These workshops are open to all students, regardless of your experience or comfort level with taxes and the filing process. The first workshop occurs Tuesday, January 16th from 5-6:30pm for domestic students (register here). The second workshop will be offered Tuesday, February 6th from 5-6:30pm for international students (register here).

URC-HASS Navigating Faculty Mentorships Workshop
Are you working with, or planning to work with a faculty member on a research or a creative project? The Undergraduate Research Center - Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (URC-HASS) is holding a workshop to help you learn how to navigate faculty mentorships! This is a great opportunity for students to learn how to maximize their faculty mentorships and get the most out of their research experiences. The workshop is open to any UCLA undergraduate and will be held from 3-4pm on Tuesday, January 16th with the option to attend in person at Powell InqLab 3 room 330 or over the live zoom.

Entrepreneurship Minor Application Information Sessions
Interested in entrepreneurship? Consider applying for the Entrepreneurship minor! The winter quarter application deadline is Friday, February 23, 2024. All prospective applicants are encouraged to register and attend a live Zoom information session to learn more about the minor and how to make your application as competitive as possible. Information sessions will be held on the following dates: 1/23 at 9 am, 1/25 at 4 pm, 1/29 at 8 pm, 1/31 at 12 pm, 2/2 at 3 pm, and 2/6 at 8 pm. Prospective students can also explore the Minor in Entrepreneurship website for more details.

CONDUITS

Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The Dashew Center
Located in 106 Bradley International Hall, the Dashew Center is a central hub that provides international students and scholars with various visa services, resources, support, and advocacy. Their aim is to serve the UCLA community by promoting global connection, international understanding, and cultural sensitivity. The Center offers appointments with F-1/J-1 counselors for specific assistance and virtual drop-in for general advice. They also organize various events including CPT & OPT Information Sessions and Winter ’24 Language Exchange Sessions. To learn more about their various resources and events, check out their website and follow them on Instagram @dashewcenterucla.
