

The Connection

Winter 2024 | Week 10

For Undergraduates in the UCLA College of Letters and Science

What's Happening Week 10?

Dashew Center Language Exchange Program

Are you currently learning a new language? The Dashew Center's Language Exchange Program connects language learners with each other as an opportunity to improve conversation skills and meet people from around the world. Any student at any language-learning level is welcome to apply. There are options to experience the language exchange in a virtual or hybrid format, depending on what you and your language partner prefer. Applications are open until Monday, April 8, 2024, 11:59PM PT. Applicants will be notified if they were matched with a language partner on a rolling basis through Monday, April 15th, 2024. You can learn more about the program and apply here, and email intlprograms@saonet.ucla.edu with any questions.

Spring Education Courses

Are you interested in the field of education and looking for courses to take next quarter? The School of Education and Information Studies still has courses available for the upcoming Spring Quarter! Some course offerings include: EDUC 11 - Education, Equality, and Future of American Society: Problems, Prospects, and Policies (also a Social Analysis GE course), EDUC 35 - Introduction to Inquiry and Research in Education, EDUC 104A - Introduction to Exceptional Learners, EDUC 140 - Educational Perspectives of Relational Practices in Modern Medicine. Enroll now on MyUCLA!

Summer Fellows Program

Interested in conducting research or a creative project in the humanities, arts, or social sciences this summer? Consider applying to UCLA's Summer Fellows Program! As a Summer Fellow, you will have the opportunity to receive a $3000 scholarship, support for your research or a creative project, and connect your work and interests to your post-grad career path. Summer Fellows must enroll in an SRP 99 or upper-division departmental research contract course under the guidance of a faculty mentor for ten weeks during Summer Session A and participate in weekly Zoom workshops and discussions on Tuesdays from 3 - 4:50 pm. At the end of the summer research fellowship, fellows will present their work at the Summer Fellows Program Symposium. Applications are open and due by May 1. More details about the program and instructions for application can be found on URC-HASS' website.
