What's Happening Week 5?

Bruin Underground Scholars Internship Application

The Bruin Underground Scholars (BUS) Program supports building a prison-to-university pipeline through recruitment, retention, and advocacy. Every year BUS offers opportunities for students within the community to work directly with the program. BUS is recruiting for three internship positions for the academic year 2024-2025: Social Media Strategist Intern, Re-Entry Support Specialist Intern (open to graduate interns), and Community Event Intern. As you're applying for a specific role, the responsibilities involve providing administrative, programmatic, and clerical support to the BUS staff. For more information on requirements, internship role responsibilities, and the application, please see this MyUCLA form. Formerly incarcerated and system impacted students are highly encouraged to apply but open to anyone interested. The deadline to apply is Week 5 Friday, May 3rd.

UCLA Careers in Law Alumni Panel

Firass Halawi, a first-generation lawyer and proud UCLA Law graduate, works as a dedicated public defender. Attendees will learn from UCLA alumni about their career trajectories and discover how to leverage their undergraduate education to prepare for a successful legal career post-graduation. This enlightening panel discussion will take place on Thursday, May 9th, from 4:00 to 5:00 pm. Click here to RSVP!
