Enrollment for Winter 2025

Schedule of classes and enrollment appointments for Winter 2025 are now available! If you feel confused or overwhelmed while planning your class schedule for Winter 2025, CAC is here to help!

Enrollment Appointments

- “Based on units completed and priority status, appointments are assigned randomly within pass time periods.” - source: UCLA Registrar’s Office
- Unit cap of 19 units per quarter
  - Enroll in up to 10 units first pass, and the rest during second pass
- Note: you will automatically be granted up to 22 units on the first day of Winter quarter if you fulfill the following requirements:
  - Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
  - Completed 15+ units and earned a term GPA of 3.0 in the Fall quarter
- For more details about excess units, visit our CAAC website

Choosing Classes

- Make use of your MyUCLA class planner to plot out projected schedules for next quarter!
- Use your first pass for classes that are in high demand/required—such as major classes, labs, popular GEs/language classes
- Take note of pre-requisites and co-requisites
  - Some courses are restricted to particular majors or class standings for a certain period or at all times
    - Check “Class Notes” under the course info for details or contact the Departmental Advisor for the course
- If you are unsure of how to navigate course enrollment, contact an Academic Advisor in your Department/College/School for support

Additional Resources

- College of Letters & Science Degree Requirements
  - Includes 180 units (60 units must be upper division), Writing I & II, Quantitative Reasoning, Foreign Language, Diversity, General Education
- Winter 2025 CAAC Enrollment Guide
- Navigating Enrollment Workshop for Transfers \(Nov. 6th, 12-1pm\)
