PC SPOTLIGHT

Welcome to a special edition of The Connection - the Peer Counselor (PC) Hiring issue! To feature our Peer Counselor hiring for the next 2025-2026 year, we are spotlighting three of our current PCs and their experience. Keep reading below, and attend one of our live virtual information sessions or watch our recorded session to learn more! The links for the info session registration and recorded video can be found at lnk.bio/uclacac.

Q: Why did you join the PC team?

- “To help students navigate UCLA as I know it can be overwhelming”
- “To support students through their diverse academic journeys”
- “To help out my peers and learn more about UCLA policies to optimize my college experience”

Q: What is your favorite part about being a PC?

- “The people! Our team, boss, and coworkers are the kindest people and the work environment is like no other”
- “Providing useful resources to students and helping them during times of need”
- “Our team is wonderful, and I enjoy the flexibility of the role”

Q: Why should someone apply for the position?

- “You get to learn a lot about UCLA, meet a wide demographic of people, and help them!”
- “You get to learn about the intricacies of CAC and contribute to the success of your peers!”
- “It’s a great way to help your peers, work with a great team, and develop counseling skills!”
